

Poland, 28 November 2017

Start of three-layer film production

TriplePak is a new, patented plastic film, distinguished by an innovative, three-layer structure. Thanks to it, it is possible to produce bags of uncompromising quality, which are characterized by high durability, functionality and an ecologically responsible approach to the use of raw materials.

